

2008 German Intergenerational Study Tour

Welcome to the Intergenerational Country!

Germany demonstrates increasing appreciation for intergenerational work. Visit three amazing cities and experience their contributions to intergenerational practice.

Learning objectives:

- Take this unique opportunity to visit intergenerational sites!
- Share your experience with international experts in the field!
- Enjoy a “Learning Holiday” - explore German culture!

Tour Details:

Period: June 1 – 7, 2008
Itinerary: Berlin – Dresden – Halle

Day	Action
Day 1	Individual arrival in Berlin
Day 2	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ➤ Seminars in Berlin ➤ Site visits in Berlin ➤ Cultural events
Day 3	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ➤ Site visits in Berlin and Dresden ➤ Trip Berlin-Dresden ➤ Cultural events
Day 4	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ➤ City Tour Dresden ➤ Site visits ➤ Cultural events
Day 5	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ➤ Site visits in Dresden and Halle ➤ Trip Dresden - Halle
Day 6	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ➤ Seminars ➤ Site visits ➤ Cultural Events
Day 7	Individual Departure

The program is rich in intergenerational experiences but also allows free time for you to individually discover the land and people, shop or just relax.

Program Details:

Seminars:

In Berlin:

- “The Intergenerational Country” (introduction)
- Intergenerational programs and networking
- Demographic developments in Germany
- Politically supported intergenerational initiatives
- International experiences in practice and policy (Input of participants)

In Halle:

- Generations and intergenerational relations (sociological perspectives)
- Intergenerational practice in Germany and Europe
- Intergenerational Learning
- Intergenerational Volunteering
- International experiences in practice and policy (Input of participants)

Site visits:

Mehr
Generationen
Haus

Berlin

Multigenerational House (one of 500 multi-generational day centres within the National programme “Mehrgenerationenhäuser”)

Senior partner in school (within the National programme “Intergenerational Volunteer Services”)

Dresden

Media Culture Centre:
Intergenerational Radio

„IG 13. Februar 1945“:
School project: coming to terms with the past

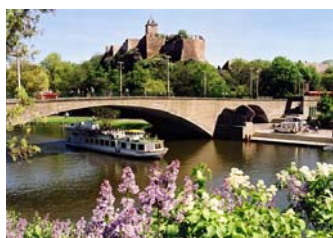

Halle

Art academy Moritzburg:
Intergenerational learning project

Franckesche Stiftungen:
House of Generations: mutual living, learning and support of all generations

Cultural Highlights (selection):

Boat trip including candle-light
Dinner on the River Spree in Berlin

City Tour Dresden (including a visit of the famous "Frauenkirche - Church of Our Lady")

Concert: Handel's "Messiah" (in the course of the International Handel-Festival
in Halle)

Costs:

1180,12 €/ 1785.00 $ per Person.

Costs include:

- accommodations, most meals, travel costs in Germany and cultural events
- Seminars, site visits and assistance of a full time coordinator and on-site facilitators

Travel Details:

Nearest airports for your arrival at Berlin are Berlin Schönefeld and Berlin Tegel.

For your departure, we recommend flying from the airport Halle/Leipzig (30 min. by train from Halle to the airport) or from one of the Berlin airports (appr. 2 hours by train from Halle to one of the Berlin airports).

Accommodation:

To keep down costs for you, we booked double rooms in the Hotels. If you have other requirements please let us know. There will be an additional single supplement.

Hosting Organisations:

University of Halle, Faculty Sociology

Dialogue of Generations, Berlin

University of Dresden

For more information:

Registration and additional information are available at <http://www.travellearnstudy.com/tours.asp>. Also, feel free to contact Matt Kaplan at msk15@psu.edu if have any questions.